ORDER:

In the references 1st & 2nd read above, the Andhra Pradesh Secretariat Association and the Andhra Pradesh Secretariat Officers Association have represented that after bifurcation of the State of Andhra Pradesh, the cadre strength of all cadres in residuary Andhra Pradesh Secretariat was reduced by 42%. Due to several novel, innovative and dynamic initiatives taken by the Government and introduction of several people welfare schemes under Navaratnalu and new policy initiatives, the workload in the departments of Secretariat has been increased and unable to cope-up with the existing staff. They have therefore requested for creation of additional posts in cadres of Section Officer, Assistant Secretary and Middle Level Officers in the departments of Secretariat under the control of Single Unit, General Administration Department.

2. The matter has been examined in detail and it is observed that after bifurcation, in Andhra Pradesh Secretariat certain new Departments viz., Department of Skills Development and Training, Department of Gram Volunteers/Ward Volunteers & Village Secretariats/Ward Secretariats, Department of Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) Welfare, and new wings were created without sanction of any additional posts. Further the Government has been implementing several people's welfare schemes through an integrated agenda under Navaratnalu and taken up several new policy initiatives/reforms viz., Naadu-Nedu in School Education/Government Hospitals, Medical and Health Sector, construction of Village/ Ward Secretariats, Rythu Bharosa Kendras with Bulk Milk Cooling Units, YSR Health Clinics etc., Government has also taken up dynamic initiatives in administration for decentralization by restructuring existing districts and Revenue Divisions into 26 districts and 75 Revenue Divisions. It is therefore considered that creation of additional posts in the cadres of Section Officer, Assistant Secretary and Middle Level Officers will strengthen the administration in the departments of Secretariat in transaction of Government Business, facilitate speedy delivery of Secretariat services, and monitor effective implementation of Government people's welfare schemes, and the administration in newly restructured districts and Revenue Divisions.

3. After careful examination of the matter, Government hereby order for creation of Eighty Five (85) additional posts in the cadres of Additional Secretary, Joint Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Assistant Secretary and Section Officer in the Departments of Andhra Pradesh Secretariat, under the control of Single Unit, General Administration Department as mentioned below:
